M32 - Stretford - Gabriel is a 12-year-old boy diagnosed with ASD, ADHD and other mental disabilities. He is a happy and very active boy and enjoys watching YouTube, playing on PlayStation and iPad or creating something on SCRACH web. Due to his ADHD Gabriel can be aggressive and now has medication (Risperidone). Due to his medication, he has put on weight and is a large boy with some strength. We therefore think he would be suited to a male who would be able to restrain him if needed. To begin with the family would prefer the support to be at the family home and once Gabriel has built up some trust, he may be safe to take out into the community. For further details we can arrange a meeting for the family to answer any other questions.

The hours are 4 per week. The family would prefer Tuesday/Thursday Evenings or a Saturday.

The rate of pay is £11.44 per hour.
